SAY HELLO

CLUB MIX / ANGELLO & INGROSSO REMIX
CHUS & CEBALLOS REMIX
DYLAN RHYMES ACID THUNDER REMIX

'Say Hello' is the massive follow up to last years club anthem 'Flashdance' which is taken from Deep Dish's second forthcoming long-player 'George Is On'. Already receiving support from Pete Tong, Steve Smart, James Hyman, Futureshock, Agnelli & Nelson, Col Hamilton and Marc Hughes to name a very small few. 'Say Hello' undoubtedly sits among Deep Dish's finest moments. The original Club mix sees Anousheh Khalili return to the mic once more, her distinctive voice sitting atop Ali and Sharam's gloriously melodic chords and harmonies and the result is simply one of the most beautiful tracks you'll hear this summer. Lyrically and musically, the track shows once more just how far Deep Dish's stratospheric talent can take them. In addition to the club mix the legendary Positiva Records ensure a remix package to die for. First on remix duties is the answer to the Swedish Mafia Angello & Ingrosso who show further signs of world domination with a bass heavy electro-house stomper an essential peaktime mix for all, whilst Chus & Ceballos give the original an Iberian twist, packed with acid stabs for those darker floor moments. Last but not least for you beat freaks out there Dylan Rhymes takes 'Say Hello' into a heavy breaks cut filled with 303 licks for complete dancefloor damage. This really is One Massive Number One Priority that needs Your Full Support in the coming weeks. Please react via our online system.
